| The Israelis say they killed six members of an Egyptian commando party this morning as it was trying to land on the east bank of the Suez Canal. Lebanese Premier Karame announced his resignation yesterday during a parliamentary debate in which he was criticized for his part in the suppression of pro-fedayeen demonstrators. If his resignation is accepted, there are unlikely to be any volunteers for his job and the crisis could be a long one. SOX1 SOX1 SOX1 SOX1 SOX1 | I. MAJOR PROBLEMS | |

. MAJOR PROBLEMS

VIETNAM

Despite Saigon's desire to improve its relations with Paris, the South Vietnamese have their guard up against French attempts to inject their views into the Paris talks. The South Vietnamese regard the French as more sympathetic toward Hanoi than toward Saigon; a surprisingly heavy-handed demarche by the French consul general in Saigon has sharpened their suspicions.

| Hanoi is often | 50X1 |

| fed grossly misleading reports on US casualties. These false | 0 |
| reports may well contribute to Hanoi's view that time is on | |
| its side in the negotiations. | |
| According to a captured enemy post-action report, Com- | |
| munist forces killed 47 US troops in a recent engagement. In | |
| fact, there were no US deaths in that action. | 50X1 |

Fighting between Lebanese security forces and profedayeen demonstrators broke out again today. The number of people killed now stands at 12 and the number injured at almost 80.

SOVIET AFFAIRS

There is nothing significant to report.

II. OTHER IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS

THAILAND-CAMBODIA

Thailand's foreign minister has welcomed a Cambodian initiative to hold formal discussions on re-establishing diplomatic relations. Although over the years there have been a number of false starts, this time substantive hurdles seem minimal, and Sihanouk--in line with his current effort to widen his diplomatic options--appears more forthcoming. There are still some personal animosities that will have to be smoothed over before a rapprochement can take place.

COMMUNIST CHINA

Initial accounts of the 9th Party Congress, which adjourned today, are bland and uninformative. The new central committee has 279 full and alternate members, compared with 170 in the last one formed in 1956. The 24 people named as appearing at the final session have been heading leadership turnouts in Peking for months. Chairman Mao, his designated successor Lin Piao, and Premier Chou En-lai were present in their usual order.
